MR. J. F. Cowan:—Dear sir:—I hereby certify that in the summer of the year 1853, a servant of mine, a boy about 19 years of age, who had always before this tin been stout and of a vigorous constitution, was attacked with gravel. A Physician was called who attended on him for several months, during which time be grew worse duly, until he was helpless, and I believe would have died in a few days had it not been for a friend, who advised the use of Cowan's Lithontriptic. I pre-cured a few bottles, the first of which gave him redef and in a short time he was able to walk about, and finally fully recovered; since which time he has had no symptoms of said disease, and to all appearance is as healthy as any servant on my plantation. I there fore recommend it to all persons suffering under like disease, as one of the most certain remedie

Given under my hand this August 22d 1857. DANIEL SHELTONS JACKSON, Tenn., August 22, 1857. The above case was perfectly cured by 13 bottles of he Lithontriptic, and was one of the worst cases of Gravel that has ever been in this country.

Sixth, corroborative of the efficacy of Williams's DR. JAMES WILLIAMS Dear Sir-It gives me great pleasure to know that you are again preparing your medicine for the cure of Dyspejesa, for many of my acquamtances have repeatedly asked me where it could be procured, knowing that I had been cured by it. As I think that a public acknowledgement of the great benefit I have received from the use of your medicine, is not only due to you, but may be useful to others, I now make it. For acveral years I suffered from Dyspepsia, which increased to such an extent that my health and constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was constitution were rapidly sinking under it. I was compelled to restrict myself to the most simple food, and even that I could not digost; I felt a loss of strength, disinclination to exercise, and (as you have it in your advertisement) a general feeling of depression and indescribable weariness. In the year 1838, hearing from others high recommendation of your Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, I procured and used it with the most happy effect; under its influence languor and wearliness gradually massed, were the competition of the weariness gradually passed away, and my appetite revived, which I could gratify with impunity. Ten years have now clapsed, and my confidence in the carative powers of your medicine has of course in creased, for it completely cured me, when I failed to obtain reher from any other source. Very respectfully, yours, ABNER ELMER, The "Elixir" is sold in bottles at $1 each, or six bet-Proprietor, JAMES WILLIAMS, M. D.
